

7 Day Best of Burundi:
Bujumbura-Karera Waterfalls-Gitega-Kirundo-Kibira National Park
Midrange

Overview: A 7-day holiday to discover the culture, history and sightseeing of Burundi, a country of relaxation after a wildlife safari in neighbouring countries.

Day 1: Arrival and city Tour

On your arrival at Bujumbura, you will go for a half day tour in Bujumbura to visit the Snake & Culture Museum; the Islam Culture Centre; the City Hall; the President's Office and the main attraction of the City: Lake Tanganyika.

Overnight at Safari Gate Hotel (BB)

Day 2: Cultural Tour of Bujumbura- Rusizi National Park

This morning, you will visit the Rusizi Forest National Park, for a guided nature walk in this park and see a lot of different animal species. After lunch, you will visit the Explorers Memorial, a huge rock in the Suburbs of Bujumbura commemorating the meeting between explorers John Speke and Hanington. We will also visit a local general goods market, the craft centre and down-town Bujumbura.

Overnight at Safari Gate Hotel (BB)

Day 3: Kiganda Royal Grounds

One of the sites is a beautiful park which is a historical sanctuary containing all details about signing the Treaty between Germans and King Mwezi Gisabo who was the traditional ruler during that colonial era. The other site is the royal inauguration grounds where the Kings Mutaga Mbikije, Mwezi Gisabo and many other ancient political kings were inaugurated. Touring this site is an incredible chance for one to enjoy the Burundian ancient royal walk on elegant, well-kept royal grounds. In the afternoon we will drive to Gitega for an overnight.

Overnight at Tropitel Hotel Gitega (BB)

Day 4: Gishora drum sanctuary-Gitega National Museum

After breakfast, you will drive to the Gishora drum sanctuary and visit the Burundi National museum. You will also visit the Mushasha catholic village, ancient administrative offices during colonial time, before returning to your hotel for dinner and overnight.
