7 Day Kenya Explorer Samburu, Olpajeta, Lake Nakuru and Masai Mara Luxury Safari

The northern territories of Kenya which are a semi-arid region offer some of the best sights and rare species of wildlife in Kenya. However the area remains unexplored. This safari starts with exploration of these territories with a visit to Samburu Game Reserve. You will visit Ol Pajeta Conservancy, Lake Nakuru and Masai Mara Game Reserve in exploring best of Kenya's safari destinations that have a unique offering of fauna and flora.

Day 1: Nairobi- Samburu Game Reserve (Home to Special Big 5)

After breakfast in the city hotel you depart Nairobi or be picked at the Jomo Kenyatta International Airport if arriving early on the day and drive north past coffee plantations via Mt Kenya and proceed to Northern territory of Kenya, home of the Samburu tribe who are cousins to the Masais. The area is a semi-arid region which is scenically and faunally dramatic is under the hot equatorial sun. This rugged semi-desert region however is home to game species rarely found elsewhere. Some of the rare species found in Samburu like Beisa Oryx, Reticulated Giraffe, Somali Ostrich and the Grevys Zebra.

You will arrive in time for lunch followed by an afternoon game drive before driving back to Lodge.

Day 2: Samburu Game Reserve

You spend a full day in the Samburu Reserve where you will have a morning and evening game drive. You will continue to search for the rare species of the Samburu as they find relief on the River Ewaso Ng'iro that runs through the reserve.

The reserve is relatively smaller to other reserves and national parks but offers a great encounter. There is a number of weird and wonderful wildlife species endemic to this area such as Gerenuk antelope, Leopard, lion, cheetah and hyenas are easy to spot. For the bird lovers too there is lots of bird life on the trees along the river with some of the bird species being endangered species.
